

1. Market Square From the tin roof market stalls, offering a large range of African curios, shell craft, jewelry and fun and funky clothing head to the Old Harbour, past the cannons and right into Harbour Road – a vibrant little street filled with boutique hotels, eateries and shops.

2. Old Harbour Café in Harbour Road serves freshly home baked breads with their breakfasts and lunches. Come and enjoy this intimate setting with their private garden. Open daily. (028 313 0629)

3. Hemingways Books is an emporium of great books and nostalgia. (Beth & Noel 028 312 2739)

... down Harbour Rd and left around the corner into St Peters Lane you'll find...

4. Fabio's Ristorante – the ultimate hidden treasures culinary experience Italian cuisine made the traditional and authentic way ALLA BUONA! (028 313 0352)

..back up St Peters over Harbour Rd .. down Main Rd on your right to

5. De Voorskooten Restaurant at 82 a serves the finest South African and European cuisine home made cakes and delicious desserts. Trip Advisor winner 2015. (076 594 5749)

...cross over Main Rd(watch the traffic) into and up Long St past the pet shop on the left is the

6. Twenty Four 17 Inn a well appointed accommodation establishment of five tastefully styled en suite rooms at affordable rates. Your host the amiable Fred Fismer. (074 028 3366)

...up the stairs on the left to

7. Cthulhu Tattoo is up the stairs between Fair Deal and the Plastic Shop offering permanent tattooing, custom design or a cover up - if you can think it, they will ink it! (Jacques 076 299 7805)

...down the stairs to the left and left again into Long St Arcade and on the left one of Hermanus' best kept secrets...

8. The Eatery will satisfy the search for a good coffee and an honest plate of food, at the right price. Their Food Shop, with food to go, is an added bonus. Open 7am–4pm (028 313 2970)

...U-turn back up the arcade and cross the road(watch the traffic) to

9. The Book Cottage A VILLAGE BOOKSHOP WITH A CITY SELECTION Stocks a comprehensive range of books and the usual accompaniments such as cards, maps diaries, journals If they don't have what you are looking for, they will do their utmost to get it for you. (028 313 0834)

...turn left out of here and left up Mitchell St and left again up Aberdeen street to 10. Romantiques at No. 14 is the ultimate hidden treasure with an absolutely amazing collection of bygones and collectibles and their own vintage movie house. (028 312 4226)

...cross Aberdeen St and up the old styled Hope Street with a left into Dirkie Uys Street to 11. Hidden Treasures – a browsers and collectors dream of antiques, furniture and bric a brac at bargain prices (Makayla at 079 839 6945)

...back down the road and on the corner is

12. Retrobelia – décor dealers of used and contemporary and mid century modern furniture a collectors delight! (028 312 3059)

...across the road for a coffee break call with

13. The Boys ...eclectic creative charm best confectionary in town. Your hosts Andre and Rory. (076 488 5029)

...carry on down Dirkie Uys Street over Mitchell Street and left into High Street (towards Woolworths) on your right past the Cycle Café to

14. Java Rock Find an interesting and unique gift to take home to someone special AND enjoy deliciously fresh cake and coffee. Zimkita/Odicia will make you feel very welcome. (028 312 4399)

...carry on down Dirkie Uys Street over Mitchell Street and left into High Street (towards Woolworths) on your right past the Cycle Café to

15. The Cuckoo Tree with a wonderful, intimate garden. This truly hidden gem serves delectable homemade dishes. Open 8.30am–4pm (selected evenings 7pm–late) (Lynne/Michelle 028 312 3430)

...further up High Street on the corner of Royal Lane

16. The Art Gallery displays the fresh and evocative art of Erna Dry, Jeandre Mariner, Lize van der Walt and Christine Henderson (082 922 3815)

... cross the road to the right to

17. Can D's Kitchen - food made with love. Daily harvest table with locally farmed produce. All day breakfasts, the best coffee in town and a little something for those with a sweet tooth.. (028 312 3407)

...right and around the corner in Broad Street to 18. Elements Handmade craft market, mostly local - all under one roof from jewellery to furniture, driftwood pieces and décor. Supporting community projects as well as hosting own, plus hobby classes in knitting and crocheting (Annette 082 877 6337)

...left out of here back down Broad Street over the road down the passage way and left onto Main Rd (past KFC) to

19. Funky Vibes specialises in music and funky clothing, t-shirts, fabrics, gifts etc. (Colleen & David 028 312 1446)

Cross Main Rd to the left and head up Harbour Lane to the piazza and sea- turn left up the road to

20. Just Cruizin The very best of South African clothing! 100% real cotton clothing/ knitwear and top quality viscose. Jewellery and accessories. Open every day! (028 313 0079)

.. next door up the stairs to

21. La Pentola Enjoy the ultimate panoramic view of Walker Bay & Chef Shane Sauvage's internationally renowned seafood & South African fusion cuisine. Service, award winning wine list & warm hospitality. Now serving Abalone. (028 313 1685)

Cross the road and stroll back to Market Square along the Cliff Path above the Old Harbour.

22. The Old Harbour Museum An intriguing marine themed display in The Whale House, historical photo exhibition in the De Wet's Huis and an open air museum on the Old Harbour. (028 312 1475)

After exploring the village you may feel like dancing! Contact the 23. Hermanus Social Dance Club They offer fun social dancing for the serious or the casual dancer at Open dance socials Wed and Fri evenings. (Call Lani for details 072 316 5787)

#FringeFun #HiddenTreasures

A Whale Fringe Festival initiative by Hermanus Promotions.

© Bruce van der Spuy 082 744 3212

HERMANUS Hidden Treasures GUIDE

Hermanus...whales and wonderful cliff paths, beaches and secret coves, mountains and fynbos a myriad of outdoor sites and sounds, activities and adventure.

And nestled between all this, fanning out from the historic Old Harbour and Fisherman's Village, scattered along Main Road and tucked away in side streets, enchanting alley ways and courtyards are the hidden treasures of Hermanus. Unique shops, galleries, boutiques and eateries where you can enjoy personal, friendly service, unique products and fine fare.

Take time to explore this other side of Hermanus...you'll be pleasantly surprised and come away enriched.

www.hermanusfestivals.co.za